

1. User Authentication

1.1 Login

The system shall allow users to login with username and password.

The system shall validate user credentials against the database.

The system shall generate an authentication token upon successful login.

1.2 Logout

The system shall allow users to logout and invalidate their token.

1.3 Password Validation

The system shall validate passwords securely.

2. Payment Processing

2.1 Process Payment

The system shall process payments for users.

The system shall validate payment amount before processing.

The system shall support multiple currencies.

2.2 Refund

The system shall allow refunds for completed transactions.

2.3 Calculate Total

The system shall calculate total price from a list of items.

3. User Management

3.1 Create User

The system shall allow creation of new user accounts.

The system shall prevent duplicate email registration.

3.2 Get User

The system shall retrieve user information by ID.

3.3 Update Profile

The system shall allow users to update their profile information.

3.4 Delete User

The system shall allow deletion of user accounts